60 MINUTES

- 04/01/01 "The Boy Scouts" - last summer the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the Boy Scouts have the legal right to exclude avowed homosexuals. The decision has stirred a heated debate involving those who charge that a policy of exclusion is fundamentally wrong, and others who charge that homosexuality is immoral and as such violates the basic code of Scouting. (C: Lesley Stahl - Shari Finkelstein)
- "Of Mice And Men" - testing of new drugs is no longer confined to studies conducted by researchers at large universities using mice and guinea pigs. An increasing number of these trials are being performed by family doctors whose patients who are unaware that the doctor is being paid by a pharmaceutical company and that the drugs may have adverse effects. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Peter Klein)
- "Hit Squads" - with Palestinian terrorists intensifying their attacks on Israeli civilians, Israeli commandos are responding with "initiated actions," which involve targeting and eliminating suspected terrorists before they have a chance to act. Critics charge that resorting to these actions puts Israel in the same league as its enemies. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Hats" - Andy talks about different styles
- 04/08/01 "The FBI & The Mob" - Robert Fitzpatrick, a former FBI agent says the agency looked the other way while its informant, Boston mobster James "Whitey" Bulger -- now the Bureau's most wanted American fugitive -- committed crimes, including murder. Former FBI agent John Connally is charged with complicity in Bulger's criminal activities and alerting him to his imminent arrest. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
- "The Trillion Dollar Question" - a report on the controversy over whether the U.S. Government should pay reparations to African-Americans for the damage done by slavery. Proponents claim that the free labor of slaves made the U.S. a wealthy country. Critics say that slavery brought African slaves to America and a far better standard of living. (C: Morley Safer - P: Alden Bourne)
- "The Rocket" - an interview with 39-year-old New York Yankee pitcher Roger "Rocket" Clemens. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert G. Anderson)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Airline Passengers' Union" - protecting passengers rights
- Update: "Dillard's" OAD: 03/25/01
- 04/15/01 "Darryl Strawberry" - interview with former baseball star Darryl Strawberry about his battles with drug addiction and cancer and his latest flight from court-ordered drug rehabilitation. Includes comments by Strawberry's friend, the former pitching ace and reformed drug addict Dwight Gooden. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
- "Mel Brooks On Broadway" - interview with actor/producer Mel Brooks about "The Producers," the Broadway musical based on his Academy Award-winning film, and the impact of his Jewishness on his life and work. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jay Kernis)
- "Stolen Lives" - Malika Oufkir was raised as a Moroccan princess until 1972 when her father, Gen. Muhammad Oufkir, unsuccessfully attempted to overthrow King Hassan. In revenge, Hassan ordered his execution and banished Malika and her entire family to the desert where they were held prisoner until 1991. In 1996 Malika was finally free to leave Morocco and is presently living in France. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Images Of Christ" - the portrayal of Jesus

04/22/01 "Doctor's Dilemma" - Federal law prohibits the execution of mentally incompetent prisoners, but controversy arises when doctors are ordered to make a patient well enough to be executed. Includes interviews with Dr. Jerry Dennis, who refused to medicate convicted murderer and paranoid schizophrenic Claude Maturana, claiming the practice violates the AMA code of ethics, and Paul McMurdy, former Arizona Assistant Attorney General, who claims that criminals might be feigning symptoms (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
"The Daily Show With Jon Stewart" - interview with Jon Stewart, whose satirical coverage of the 2000 presidential election on his Comedy Central cable television program won him a Peabody Award. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)
"Genes" - in 1998 the Parliament of Iceland passed a law selling DeCode, a private company owned by Dr. Kari Steffansson, the exclusive rights for 12 years to collect and analyze the medical records of the country's entire population. Proponents claim the data gathered will be valuable for scientists searching for genes that cause disease. Critics call DeCode's collecting and using medical records an invasion of privacy. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Ruth Streeter)
Andy Rooney Topic: "The U.S. & China" - U.S. China spy plane incident/who benefits from trade with China

04/29/01 "Caught On Tape" - a report on the crisis in Ukraine following the emergence of tapes, secretly recorded by former KGB agent Major Mykola Melnychenko, that allegedly implicate President Leonid Kuchma, in criminal conspiracies and the death of Georgi Gongadze, an openly critical journalist. Includes an interview with Kuchma who denies the validity of the tapes claiming that they are part of a conspiracy to bring down his government. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
"Shoot The Fox" - a report on a bill now going through Great Britain's Parliament that would ban fox hunting. Critics charge that the sport, viewed as one of the unchanging traditions in English life, causes unnecessary suffering to foxes. Hunt supporters claim that the ban has more to do with the issues of social class than animal rights. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley)
"The Sudbury Way" - at the Sudbury Valley School, a private school in Framingham, Massachusetts, none of the usual academic standards apply -- students don't have to attend class, have no homework, tests or grades and are free to do whatever they want. Includes interviews with Dan Greenberg, one of the school's founders and Abigail Thernstrom, a member of the Massachusetts Board of Education who is highly critical of the Sudbury Valley. (C: Morley Safer - P: Alden Bourne)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Letters" - Andy's mail

60 MINUTES II

04/03/01 "Shock Therapy" - ECT (electro-convulsive therapy), commonly called shock treatment, is becoming increasingly routine in the U.S. Those who endorse ECT, including author William Styron, claim that it is the most effective antidepressant treatment available. Critics charge that it can result in brain damage. (C: Bob Simon - P: Joel Bernstein)
"Tax Revolt" - dozens of small business owners have stopped withholding taxes from their employees and have challenged the IRS to prove them wrong. Includes interviews with: Al Thompson, a small business owner; Professor Clarisa Potter, Georgetown University; and Charles Rossotti, IRS Commissioner. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Reylena Fields)
"Who Killed The Whales?" - a report on the mysterious mass stranding of beaked whales in the Bahamas. Marine experts feel that the answer lies in the reverberations caused by the U.S. Navy's sonar which injures the whales' ears, disorienting them and driving them to shallow water and sometimes the beach. (C: David Martin - P: Mary Walsh)
Charles Grodin - Grodin welcomes daylight-saving time

- 04/10/01 "Dope & Glory" - a number of U.S. Olympic athletes claim that they were given illegal performance-enhancing drugs by their coaches. Includes interviews with Greg Strock and Erich Kaiter, athletes who suffered serious health problems; Dr. Wade Exum, U.S. Olympic Committee; and Dr. Joseph Califano, National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Bill Owens, Mary Lee Owen)
"Genetic Secrets" - last month, in the first lawsuit of its kind the U.S. Equal Opportunity Commission sued the Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railway for "genetic discrimination." It charges that the railroad was surreptitiously testing its employees for a genetic predisposition to a painful and common workplace injury called carpal tunnel syndrome, in an effort to avoid paying employees' medical bills and reimbursing them for lost time. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Paul Gallagher)
"Open Season" - days before announcing his candidacy for governor, Charlie Condon, South Carolina Attorney General, ordered that anyone who kills an intruder will not be charged, arrested or prosecuted. Condon claims that he acted because of a rash of home invasions in his state. Critics charge that the order was politically motivated. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum)
Charles Grodin - what workmen see when they are restoring windows in residential buildings
- 04/17/01 "Columbine" - two years after two students murdered 13 people and injured 23 more at Columbine High School, 60 MINUTES II uncovers new information about what happened there - including a security plan that, if implemented, might have prevented the tragedy. Includes interviews with key figures in the Columbine shootings -- former security officers, schoolmates of the killers, teachers and parents. The report raises new questions about warning signs that were ignored and delays in the police rescue that cost lives. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber, Helen Malmgren) (special hour-long report)
- 04/24/01 "The Day Reagan Was Shot" - a report on recently released tapes showing the state of confusion in the White House on 3/30/81, the date of an attempted attempt on the life of President Ronald Reagan. Includes interviews with: Richard Allen, Reagan National Security Adviser; Alexander Haig, Reagan Secretary of State; Fred Fielding, Reagan attorney; and Ed Meese, Reagan Counselor. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Margaret Ebrahim)
